SAFETY TOWN

At Safety Town, professional community members share insights with children on staying safe and reacting to emergencies.

Children experience real-life day-to-day situations in a miniature village of Warrenville while riding bikes and walking through it. They will encounter a school crossing guard; will learn to stop, look, and listen; and will consider "what ifs" in relation to railroad crossing and fire safety.

Registration limited to the first 30 kids; registration deadline is June 26. Sponsored by Spare Wheels Bus Company, Warrenville Fire Department, Warrenville Police Department.

Saturdays in July from 9:00-11:30 a.m. You may sign up for one, several, or all Saturdays. Fee for all 4 Saturdays: $40 resident, $45 non-resident; daily fee: $11 resident, $16 non-resident.
